

You are playing a news reporter at a press briefing. If the President or Press Secretary call on you, you should give your name and news agency, then you can either ask the following question or one of your own, if you can come up with a more difficult question to ask.

Peggy / Petie Abbas
National Enquirer

Is it true that Russian troops are invading Kerzakhstan already? Are we seeing the beginning of World War Three? How should the American people prepare for the oncoming nuclear armageddon?

You are playing a news reporter at a press briefing. If the President or Press Secretary call on you, you should give your name and news agency, then you can either ask the following question or one of your own, if you can come up with a more difficult question to ask.

Will / Winter Palaga
Fox News

If the Kerzakhstanis don't return the missing jet fighter to the US, then how much additional danger will American citizens be in? How much strategic information about our military capabilities can terrorists or enemy states learn by examining the plane? How many citizens could be killed by a single jet fighter?

You are playing a news reporter at a press briefing. If the President or Press Secretary call on you, you should give your name and news agency, then you can either ask the following question or one of your own, if you can come up with a more difficult question to ask.

Glen / Glenda Musgrave
CNN

The Russians have stated that "a loose Mach 3 fighter in the region could disrupt the balance of power" there, which is to say it would loosen Russia's control. Is this a conflict between Russia and Kerzakhstan that the United States should stay out of?

You are playing a news reporter at a press briefing. If the President or Press Secretary call on you, you should give your name and news agency, then you can either ask the following question or one of your own, if you can come up with a more difficult question to ask.

Alex / Anna Lorens
MSNBC

If we can successfully get back our missing soldier, then is the loss of a single fighter plane a loss worth fighting over? Or is the loss of a multi-million dollar jet too great? Have our military technologies reached a price point where they are too valuable to be risked in actual combat?