

YOU ARE:

Marty / Marcy Belka

WITNESS PROTECTION PLANT

You were a small time forger for the Cleveland Mafia, until you turned state's witness against one of the bigwigs. So now the entire organized crime outfit wants to stick a few knives in your eyes. Hence, you've been assigned a new name and life in this podunk town by the Witness Protection Program.

1

SHERIFF NELSON DEHARD

You thought it would be a good idea to get in good with local law enforcement, you know? But this morning, the sheriff came to you with a crazy plan. I guess that Underwood kid - the one that just inherited the Manna Hotel from his dead grandpa? - he got in some legal trouble last night. You're not clear what exactly, though the Sheriff kept laughing about the kid being caught in a laundry line.

Anyway, the kid's young, naive and scared. The sheriff asked you to fake up some worrying paperwork implying that the sheriff had to seize control of the co-op because of the break-in. It's completely legally implausible, but the Underwood kid won't know the difference. You're here to deliver the papers to the Sheriff, so he can make Underwood sign them. (Now where did you put them? They were here just a minute ago.)

CANDICE CROSS

You don't really care about the co-op itself, but you want to seize control of the co-op's bizarre, tiny zoo. See, you discovered that there's a rare albino Chinese ferret-badger in there. If you can sell that to the right person, it'd be worth more than a small town electrical utility would be. Crazy, but you've known enough rich folk to know how crazy they can be for exotic pets. Seven figures, at least. The sheriff don't know what the badger's worth, so he promised you the entire zoo. (Of course, you don't know any crazy rich folk now, but you'll find a buyer once you have the badger.)

You need to sell the badger and get rich quick, because you're in love. You've been having an affair with the beautiful Candice Cross, right under her husband's nose. But Candice only has respect for the almighty dollar. And the Witness Protection Program don't pay very well. So you're hoping to get control of the zoo, sell the badger off on the grey market and then convince Candice to leave her husband for you.

SISTER JEAN LAZIA, AKA "JANIE LANSING"

Sister Jean. She's another member of your old crime family. Used to operate disguised as a nun. But she's here in the hotel, and she recognized you, right outside as you were coming in. She was all ready to put a bullet in your skull, but you pleaded with her. Made her a deal, to cut her in on your scam. Once you sell the badger, you'll split the money with her. You just hope that it's enough after you split it to make Candice happy. And enough to keep Jean from breaking your legs and throwing you in a trash compactor.
